COMMUTING IS THE NEW BLACK.

Now you need a bike. We asked three questions...Can it get over the bridge, is it lightweight and is it comfortable? When we got a yes on all three questions, we knew we had our bike.

So simple and so genius! The Little Lifter Leather Bicycle Carrying Handle lets you lift your bike to a bus rack or hanging rack (or up a flight or two of stairs) quickly and easily.

I LOVE SATURDAY.

Of course we'll stop by for fresh and local fruits and veggies, but we're loving the food vendors and artisans at the Charleston Farmer's Market—from pickles to hot pretzels to olive oil, fresh pasta, Roti Rolls, fried chicken and waffles...we're hungry just thinking about it!

Check out this little lovely from Landrum Tables, handmade from locally reclaimed wood. They have a great selection every Saturday.

"Grab a cup of coffee in the morning, head to Sullivan's Island and watch all the dogs play; it's impossible not to be happy. 'The dog is the god of frolic.'"

RAISE A GLASS

Dear skirt!,
What's with all the expensive wine at Happy Hour? A dollar off a glass of good wine does not sound very happy in my book. It seems like Happy Hour has become a pastime for IPA drinkers and house vodka maidens. What's a wine lover to do?
SIGNED, I MISS HAPPY HOUR

Dear I Miss Happy Hour,
You might be looking for vino in all the wrong places! Adjacent to its Southerly Restaurant, with open-air patio and bustling schedule of tastings and events, Southern Season is a mecca for wine lovers. Try the $3 house wine...it's a cut above and Southerly has Happy Hour from 4-7 p.m. daily! 730 Coleman Blvd., Mt. Pleasant.

XOXO, SKIRT!
